Special Entry

Recommendation

In first year, two streams are offered: one for absolute beginners, and another for non-beginners. For the non-beginners' level a minimum of HC3 grade in Leaving Certificate Spanish, or equivalent, is strongly recommended.

Choosing Spanish

Spanish may be taken as part of a BA Joint Honours degree [DN500], or on a part-time basis [DN501]. We accept absolute beginners (taught separately in first year) and non-beginners. Opportunities exist for suitably qualified students to spend an extra year abroad and graduate with a BA [International]. If you wish to reach the level of linguistic proficiency required by employers, we recommend that you opt for the four-year BA [International] degree. Alternatively, if you wish to study more than one language, with a year abroad, consider DN541 International Languages (see page 48). Review the other subjects you can study with Spanish by looking at the diagram on page 33. Details of how to apply for these combinations, as part of DN500, are on page 185.

Why is this subject for me?

Spanish is a truly global language, spoken by more than 400 million people around the world. Taught through interactive language classes, Spanish is not only accessible in the initial stages of learning, it is also richly rewarding for those interested in the more advanced subtleties of linguistic study. In tandem with learning to communicate effectively in Spanish, a combination of lectures, tutorials and group work enables you to pursue your own readings of and reflections upon works by major authors, from Cervantes to Lorca, García Márquez and beyond. This will deepen your knowledge of Hispanic culture as well as sharpening your critical faculties. Opportunities will be available to study Portuguese and acquire translation skills.

What will I study?

We aim to train you in the four main skills of reading, writing, speaking and listening. A complementary objective is to focus on the analytical study and understanding of Hispanic literatures and cultures. If suitably qualified, students have the opportunity to study for an Erasmus year in Spain, Latin America or Portugal.

STUDENT

Spanish in UCD is an intimate and friendly degree which I would definitely recommend. I took part in Spanish language plays, run by students and staff, which were a huge highlight of my year. Lecturers were enthusiastic and supportive, encouraging us to open up and debate in small groups.
