

LLM International Human Rights

(One Year Full time or Two Years Part Time)

Introduction

This programme is directed at well-qualified graduates in law, politics and associated disciplines. It builds on the strengths of the UCD Centre for Human Rights which has members from UCD Sutherland School of Law, UCD School of Politics and International Relations and UCD School of Social Policy, Social Work and Social Justice.

Faculty members have engaged in major research, spanning the full range of international human rights law from Asylum Law and Practice, the EU and Fundamental Rights, to the Law of Privacy in Ireland.

Career Opportunities

The aim of this programme is to equip graduates to work in the field of human rights, either internationally or in Ireland, as a practising lawyer, legal adviser, policy-maker, advocate, researcher or academic. Career opportunities exist in inter-governmental organisations (United Nations, Council of Europe, European Union, Organisation for Cooperation and Security in Europe), government departments, international and domestic non-governmental organisations, and leading law firms.

Several UCD careers events are held throughout the year, including dedicated law careers fairs which are attended by top employers from Ireland, the UK and international markets. In addition to the unrivalled Careers Network in UCD, Sutherland School of Law has its own dedicated faculty member with responsibility for careers.

Graduate Profile

Adriana Ferreira dos Santos

The LLM in Human Rights in UCD included subjects from both Law and Politics which met my academic needs. I visited the campus and realised it had everything I was looking for; a well-structured course with faculty that have great expertise in the area, interesting subjects, an excellent research database and impressive facilities.

Ireland has a beautiful landscape and the people are welcoming. I also think it has the perfect atmosphere for study. I joined the boxing club at UCD and found it a great place to make friends and relax after studying. I really enjoyed the amazing sports complex.

I think UCD has both high academic standards and great facilities available to the students; you have the option of having a meal on campus, watching a film at the Student Centre or playing sports in the Sports centre. I think this makes the academic experience more complete.
