

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 1, Credits 5 This module explores the nature and role of hope for science and society in a post-pandemic world. The teaching team will reflect on hope drawing on their expertise in art history, biochemistry, computer science, law, philosophy, physics, politics, sociology and veterinary medic...
--

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 0, Credits 5 This module is aimed at students who wish to acquire a basic knowledge and understanding of how the Irish legal system operates within its societal context. The law module seeks to provide students with confidence and become active, autonomous learners who are conscious of the so...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 1, Credits 5 This module provides students with an overview of Business Law. Among the areas covered are: 1. The concepts governing the application of law in Ireland: the court system and the sources of law; the operation of the legal system. 2. The ingredients of a contract: formation of con...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 1, Credits 5 This course examines the institutional structure of the state which is set out by the Constitution. It will detail the various institutions and offices which are established by the Constitution. It will also consider the way in which the Constitution's various provisions affect t...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 1, Credits
5
This course considers how the Constitution of Ireland protects fundamental rights and the relationship of these rights to the State's obligations under the international human rights treaties to which it is a party. Examples of the fundamental and human rights that may be consider...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Autumn, Level 1, Credits 5 The topics covered in this module will be: Negligence;The Duty of Care; The standard of care; Policy considerations in negligence; Negligent Misstatement; Nervous Shock; Economic Loss; Omissions; Liability of public authorities; Professional negligence; Causation and remotenes...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022

by

Spring, Level 1, Credits
5 Co-requisites:
LAW 10190
Law of Tort I

Description:
The Topics covered in this module will be:
Occupiers Liability; The Rule in Rylands
v. Fletcher; Liability for Injury caused by Animals; Nuisance; Trespass to Land; Products Liability; Defences; Trespass to the Person;Trespas
s ...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 1, Credits 5 This module examines the Irish Criminal Process from apprehension (arrest, summons etc) to charge, to trial and on to sentencing. It includes a focus on topics such as remand and release on bail, detention for questioning, and trial by jury, and also looks at aspects of the pena...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 1, Credits 5 This module examines the Irish Civil Processright from accrual of cause of action through to execution of judgment. Topics to be examined include - accrual of cause of action, limitation periods and statutes of limitation; civil jurisdiction of the courts; initiation of proceedi...
--

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
1, Credits
5
The course
constitutes the first French law module in the BCL (French
Law
Programmes). It is designed to provide students with an Introduction to French
Constitutional Law. It is complemented in stage 2 with the course
French Public Law 2 which provides an Introduction to French ...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 1, Credits 5 This module introduces students to the law relating to the formation of contracts. It will include a study of the following issues: Offer & Acceptance; Consideration (incl. Estoppel); Intention; Certainty & Formal Requirements; Terms of a Contract v Mere Representations ; Rules o...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 1, Credits 5 This course will look at possible vitiating factors for a contract. Students will consider the capacity to contract of certain vulnerable groups, such as children. We will look at what happens if one of the parties enters the contract due to improper pressure that was placed on t...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 1,
Credits
5 General
Introduction to the Irish Legal System (GILS)
seeks to act as a critical introduction for students to the Irish legal system.
Students
examine the sources and hierarchies of laws in the Irish legal system within a rule of law framework.
Common law, legislation, EU and in...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022

by

 Autumn, Level 1, Credits 5 This module introduces commerce students to the fundamental features of the Irish legal system and to some of the major pillars of Business Law. General legal principles such as precedent and statutory interpretation are covered, as are core aspects of substantive areas of Law in...

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
1, Credits
5 This five-credit
module
introduces students to the skills and knowledge which are essential to the study of law, effective learning at university and professional development.
Students will be given a solid foundation in the skills of legal research;
reading and analysing legal m...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 1,
Credits
5
This module constitutes an introductory course to French Private Law in year 1 of the BCL Law with French Law and BCL/Maîtrise
programmes. It is designed to provide students with a good understanding of the main features of civil law.
Substantively,
the course falls into 3 secti...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 1,
Credits
5 This module is designed as an Introduction to EU law and Institutions and is not offered to UCD Law
students enrolled in a four year BCL or BBL programme . It is available to 'visiting' or international law students and UCD students enrolled in non-law programmes. r It examine...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 1, Credits 5 This module acts as a critical introduction for students to the Irish legal system. This module explores the sources of law in the Irish legal system, the structure of the Irish courts system (both at first instance and on appeal); the function of judges and how they are appointe...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 1, Credits 5 The aim of this module in Comparative Study of Law is to provide students with a general knowledge of the comparative approach for studying law. Comparative law is a unique legal subject in that it does not concern, in and of itself, any established legal products on its own, suc...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 1, Credits
5
This module
relies on a "law and literature"
approach to make the link between French LAW and the FRENCH
language (as well as French culture and key literary texts with legal relevance).

The aim of the module is to help you improve your comprehension of legal French and furthe...

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
2, Credits
5 This module is the first of two focusing on the law of companies in Ireland which, when taken together, cover the required
syllabus for the professional bodies in the subject
Company Law.

This module
aims to give students a basic understanding
of the fundamentals of Irish Comapn...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 2, Credits 5 This module is the second of two focusing on the law of companies in Ireland which, when taken together, cover the required syllabus for the professional bodies in the subject Company Law. This module builds on learning acquired in the module Company Law I and on basic legal knowl...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 2, Credits 5 The aim of this module is to give students a grounding in the institutional and constitutional framework of the European Union. European Union law is first put in its historical framework by considering the constitutional evolution of the European Union, including an analysis of...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 2, Credits 5 This module explores the key European Union legal policies intended to secure the operation of the Internal Market. The legal policies examined in this module include: - free movement of goods - free movement of services - free movement of workers and families - competition ...
--

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022

by

 Spring, Level 2, Credits 5 This module is the second part of the introductory course on French Civil Law for second year students of the BCL Law with French Law and BCL/ Maîtrise programmes. The course is divided into 2 sections: 1. Droit des Contrats (Contract Law). 2. Responsabilité Civile (Tort Law). It...

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
2, Credits
5 This five credit
module
introduces candidates to the foundations of the Irish law of property. The module
considers how legal systems approach the regulation of property ownership and benefits; the history of the development of real property law in Ireland, including the role pla...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 2, Credits 5 This 5-credit module builds on the knowledge and skills established in Property Law I. Students will acquire knowledge in property law and further develop their doctrinal, theoretical and analytical skills. Students will examine the law relating to discrete areas of Property...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 2, Credits 5 This module begins by introducing the student to the general principles of criminal liability. It examines the nature of criminal (as distinct from civil) liability and considers the elements of crime including in particular the concepts of actus reus, mens rea and issues in caus...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 2, Credits 5 This module builds on Law20390 to examine in detail the catalogue of criminal offences and the general defences which may apply in respect of those offences. It covers the substantive crimes of homicide, sexual offences, offences against the person, offences against property and ...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 2, Credits 5 The course constitutes the pendant of French Public Law 1 (Introduction to French Constitutional Law) in stage 2 of the BCL (French Law Programmes). It is designed to provide students with an Introduction to French Administrative Law. Substantively, the course falls into two main...
 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 This course addresses the fundamental legal principles which govern the relationship between banks, their customers and third parties in the retail banking context...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 10 This module will introduce students to company law and insolvency law. The module aims to equip students to identify company law problems which commonly arise in practice and to respond appropriately. The module will introduce students to the Companies Act and will train students...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 10 This module examines how contracts are formed and their express and implied terms. It explores why contracts may be invalid on the grounds of misrepresentati on, duress and undue influence. It examines circumstances which make contracts illegal or unenforceable. It details the pos...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 10 This module provides a general introduction to the main features of both the Singaporean legal orders. It considers aspects of Singaporean law which are of particular relevance to businesses, including tort and employment law. ...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 10 This module will introduce students to the key principles of sales law in Singapore. In particular it will examine the definition of the contract of sale; the passage of risk and property; implied terms as to quality, description and sample; title disputes and the remedies availa...
--

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022

by

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 10 This module provides a general introduction to the main features of both the Singaporean legal orders. It considers aspects of Singaporean law which are of particular relevance to businesses, including tort and employment law....
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 This module focuses on the history of the emergence of equity as a source of law with particular focus on modern equitable remedies and the specific conditions regarding their use today. A legal comparative approach is adopted in the teaching of this module with full considerati...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 This is the first of two modules examining the rules that regulate the admission of evidence in a court of law. These rules cover the gathering of evidence in advance of trial and its subsequent presentation in the courtroom. This course places particular emphasis on the struct...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 This module provides an introduction to the purpose and nature of tax, and to the principles and policies of revenue law. It looks at the sources of revenue law (Constitution, European Convention of Human Rights, EU law, legislation), territoriality and the connecting factors be...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 3, Credits
5
This is the second of two modules examining the rules that regulate the admission of evidence in a court of law. This course builds on the "Evidence - Foundations" module and focuses on advanced topics within the Law of Evidence. The module begins with a detailed consideration o...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 The relationship between employer and employee is based on a contract. This module is concerned with that contract, tracing the contract from its inception to its termination. The course begins by identifying a contract of employment. It examines the formation, enforceability and...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 3, Credits
5 Jurisprudence spans over two millennia of history of people thinking about what law is and what purpose it serves. It examines approaches to law in diverse societies as ancient Rome, medieval Europe, Victorian Britain, Soviet Russia,
Nazi Germany
and contemporary Ireland. The ...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 This course deals with the main areas of law which affect the daily working of all media - the law of defamation, the law of contempt of court and the legal protection of privacy and confidential information and broadcasting and press regulation. It examines those principles and ...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 This module focuses on the rules relating to the creation and administration of trusts and the role which the trust plays in modern society. A legal comparative approach is adopted in the teaching of this module with full consideration of the leading Irish and English cases and ...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 Judicial review is the individual's remedy for the correction of illegal action by public agencies or officers. Judicial review is also one of the most common legal processes in the superior courts. The remedy by way of judicial review is available only where the agency commits on...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 This module begins by reviewing the principal remedy for illegal administrative action: judicial review. After examining the history of the judicial review process, it turns to practical bars to public law redress such as the law of costs. It surveys the extent to which the ind...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 This module explores the politics of law and order, the history of coercive confinement, the role of the prison in society, and approaches to penal reform. A wide range of source material is used including official statistics, policy papers, and academic studies....
--

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 3, Credits
5 European
Human Rights Law provides a detailed exploration on select rights contained within the European Convention on Human Rights
(ECHR). As well as exploring process and procedures for bringing a complaint
before the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR),
this module
provides...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 The theme of this module is the set of statutory rules constraining the employer's prerogative in the employment relationship. The module focuses on the extent to which the legislature, often in the context of Ireland's EU obligations, has prescribed employee rights in respect o...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 This module will examine Constitutional Law aspects to marriage, the family and members thereof. The module essentially involves an examination of marriage validity and the legal remedies available upon marriage breakdown. It will involve an in-depth examination of marriage valid...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 Environmental law is fundamental to how society interacts with the natural world around it. This module will examine the key principles of environmental law, its underlying philosophies, and how it is applied, at national, European and international levels. It will trace the de...
--

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 Family law is a fascinating and dynamic subject that raises important issues of social policy. Historically and constitutionally, Irish law has only recognised one form of family - the marital unit. This module focusses instead on two alternative views of the family - parent-chil...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 This module involves the study of the promotion and protection of human rights under international law. It aims to provide students with a substantial grounding in the legal foundations of contemporary international human rights law (IHRL), with a particular emphasis on the Inter...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 This module explores key theories of crime, including biological, psychological and sociological explanations of criminal behaviour. It examines both classic and recent criminological theories, investigating their origins, principal ideas and practical implications. ...
--

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 This module is concerned with two broad legal historical themes, both with a constitutional character. The organising theme of the first part of the module is the legal history of personal constitutional rights. The module includes the following topics: (i) The history of wom...
--

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 This module will deal with a selection (which may vary from offering to offering) of topics which illustrate the interface between the law, politics and public policy. Specific topics that may be dealt with - but which will vary from year to year - are the legislative process (an...

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
3, Credits
5
This module
examines commercial law and the sale of goods. The following areas in particular will be covered:
typical commercial relationships;
their key features and contract structures;
operation of commercial
contracts;
methods of dispute resolution; the role of the Irish cour...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 3, Credits
5
The course
constitutes the last French law module in the BCL Law with French Law
programme. It is a non-taught module and students are asked to write a 5,000 words dissertation in the French language on a topic agreed with their supervisor. It is designed to provide students the ...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 This module examines how EU Competition Law operates in practice. Art 101 TFEU prohibits anti-competitive arrangements among market actors and Art 102 TFEU prohibits the abuse of a dominant position by one or more undertakings. Taking a practical and problem based perspective...

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
3, Credits
5 In this module students will be given an overview as to courtroom etiquette and behaviour so that they know how to address the court and are aware of various formalities that surround appearing in
and representing a client in Court.

However the main focus of this module is to g...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 This module examines the role of the legal profession in contemporary social, economic and political life and the competing pressures of values and ethics in professional life. It engages students in developing critical awareness of how the legal education and the practice of la...
--

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
3, Credits
5 Traditionally,
public
international law
was said to concern the legal relations between sovereign equal states. If that description was ever really accurate or adequate, today it is certainly a view of international law
under strain.
The growing and increasingly complex web of
tr...

Search Modules by School

 Summer, Level 3, Credits 5 This module offers students an opportunity to pursue independent research on an aspect of law that is of particular interest to them. It is a 5-credit module that takes place over the summer trimester and is delivered in a hybrid and flexible manner. Students will devise their...

Search Modules by School

 Summer, Level 3, Credits 5 This is a generic module descriptor that will cover different summer schools involving the School of Law. At present two US Law Schools, Fordham and Tulsa, offer such programmes and discussions are on-going with a number of US Law Schools about a bespoke programme offered at UCD ...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 This module looks at how the law responds to private disputes which transcend national borders: eg cross-border contract litigation, torts committed abroad. This module will explore the three core elements of Private International Law: jurisdiction (when will an Irish court hear ...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 The first part of this module examines the law and policy of the patent system. Topics covered may include: the justification for the patent system, the framework of patent law, including the European Patent Convention and the proposal for a unitary patent package, the criter...
--

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 3, Credits
5 Planning law has historically
been controversial, politicised and adversarial in Ireland, making
for a fascinating
mix of law,
policy and politics. This module will introduce students to core features of planning law,
including:
development;
planning
applications and decisions; a...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 This module examines the legal regimes governing and produced by inter-governmen tal organisations. This includes a consideration of the legal and conceptual nature of such organisations. It seeks to discern unity, while recognising that each organisation has its individual legal ...
--

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 More than two thirds of the earth's surface is covered by water, and the sea and the sea-bed are used by states for a variety of purposes. The creation of rules to govern activities in these areas has consequently become one of the most important functions of contemporary interna...
--

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 This module will examine core areas of sports law as they affect athletes, spectators and organizers of sports events. In particular, it will consider contractual issues in sport between the various actors, the structure and powers of sports associations and the role of intellect...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 This module is concerned with family disputes transcending national borders. Classes will explore the cross-border recognition of adoption, surrogacy, marriage and divorce; the regulation of international parental responsibility disputes and the return of abducted children; and t...

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
3, Credits
5 Law has a complex relationship with social inclusion.
Within the realms of social welfare law and housing law, significant state architecture exists to, in part,
meet the needs of persons. This module
describes legislative entitlement to certain social welfare payments and forms ...

Search Modules by School

2 Trimester duration (Aut-Spr), Level
3, Credits
10
This module
offers students an opportunity to pursue independent research on an aspect of law that is of particular interest to them.

This is a 10 credit module that takes place over both trimesters. At the end of the module
students should have completed an 8.000 word
paper...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 3, Credits
5 Whilst Public International Law governs
the legal relationships between sovereign states, International Economic Law is that area of Public
International Law dealing with the trading relationships
between states.
The scope of this area covers not only
international trade law but ...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 States have a right under international law to limit access by non-citizens to a state. Rights of non-citizens in a State may differ to those who are citizens or permitted residents. This module engages with questions regarding how law permits or potentially limits State regulati...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 3, Credits
5 Medical law is a module
providing students with the opportunity to understand and examine the legal frameworks (tort
law,
constitutional law, human rights law, and professional guidelines) that govern the provision of healthcare in Ireland and internationally.
In doing so,
studen...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 This module seeks to introduce students to the topical issue of hate speech and how it is regulated at the international and European levels, as well as comparatively in various jurisdictions. There is not a universal definition for hate speech, so the first part of the module wi...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 3, Credits
5
This module aims to guide students to prepare children in DEIS schools at primary level to participate in a mock trial in their classroom as barristers, solicitors, defendants, judges, jury etc. The module is part of a collaboration between UCD Access & Lifelong Learning and th...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 3, Credits
5 Copyright law
has become increasingly important with the advance in information technology.
Today,
copyright law
largely determines how we access information
online and how we interact with and share such content. The Module will introduce students to the basics of copyright law ...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 30 This paid internship module (which is open to third year students studying Law as a single subject) enables students to experience a 14 week placement with an employer in a professional environment. The module provides students with the opportunity to apply the skills and knowled...
--

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Autumn, Level 3, Credits 5 This module introduces the key aspects of internet law and regulation from an Irish and European perspective. Topics covered will include e-commerce, platform regulation, intermediary liability, cybercrime and data protection....

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 The aim of this module is to allow students to further develop and reflect on their legal skills. These skills include legal writing skills, legal research skills, referencing, presentation skills and project management skills. Students will be encouraged to consider their progre...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 3, Credits 5 This module aims to give students with existing knowledge of international law the chance to undertake more in-depth study and research into contemporary issues that raise salient international legal problems. Recent events and issues such as the Russian invasion of and ongoing w...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 A study of the domestic and international law and practice of commercial arbitration. The course will cover: The Arbitration Agreement: form; scope and effect; the proper law of the arbitration agreement; giving effect to the agreement to arbitrate; litigating the subject matter o...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 This module comprises a practical, in-depth examination of the foundations of environmental law, with a focus on European and international perspectives. It traces the development of EU and international environmental law to date and analyzes the legal principles applied to envi...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 This module will provide students with an introduction to the nature and scope of International Economic Law. In particular, the module will examine the nature of the law established through the creation of World Trade Organization, with particular emphasis on the process of disp...
--

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 The course explores the internationalisati on of competition law in a globalising world. It examines different competition regime models. It examines why there is no international competition law regime despite the growth of international trade. It adopts an institutional analys...
--

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 The module is concerned with trade mark law. The module will explore functional theories of trade mark law; the development of statutory systems of registration and infringement; the expansion of passing off and the development of unfair competition law; the development of intern...
--

Search Modules by School

Summer, Level
4, Credits
30
This module
prepares students to independently research a graduate level dissertation in Law and/or Criminology.
Students are introduced to various legal and criminological research
approaches and methodologies.
Training in legal research skills (such as academic honesty, locatin...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 This advanced level module critically examines how EU competition law governs particular actions of private market actors. It considers the rationale behind EU competition law and how this area of law fits in to the EU's economic order and philosophy. It explores and critiques t...
 Spring, Level 4, Credits 5 This module focuses on the law and practice of domestic arbitration, covering the arbitration agreement, the arbitrator, the arbitral process, the award, recourse against the award, and enforcement of the award....

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Summer, Level 4, Credits 5 This module focuses on the key skills required of arbitrators in terms of management of arbitral procedure....
 Summer, Level 4, Credits 5 This module focuses on writing a valid and enforceable reasoned arbitral award....

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 5 This module focuses on the Irish law of contract, tort, evidence and litigation procedure. The focus is on the general principles rather than on the principles specific to arbitration, and the purpose of the module is to equip students who do not hold university law degrees or eq...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

Autumn, Level
4, Credits
10 A defining feature of modern societies is a heightened awareness of crime and its consequences.
Individuals take account of victimisation risk when planning their routine activities;
governments respond with repressive legislation and an increased use of imprisonment;
confidence ...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 The response to crime since the mid-1990s has been characterised in many developed countries by an emphasis on penal expansionism. This module explores some of the dilemmas that confront prison systems everywhere (e.g. violence, self-harm, segregation, and recidivism). The extent...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 This module explores key theories of crime, including biological, psychological and sociological explanations of criminal behaviour. Students are encouraged to critically examine both classic and recent criminological theories, including their origins, principal ideas, strengths...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 The module will cover both the legal and regulatory environment and the informational and market infrastructures which apply in Ireland and the wider EU. The objective of this module is to develop an understanding of the development of corporate governance and its importance to c...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 This seminar is a clinical legal module. It examines the law relating to non-government al organisations, non-profit organisations and charities. Using Ireland as a case-study, the seminar explores the political, social and legal context in which NGOs operate in Ireland, neighbou...
--

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
4, Credits
10
This module
involves a critical examination of key aspects of the operation and substantive law of the 1950 European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR). In particular this module focuses on the incorporation of the ECHR into domestic law, the individual
complaint
procedure as it
...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 5 This module examines legal thought over the past two millennia of human history. Jurisprudence is a broad subject that explores what law is and what purpose it serves. This module will examine the works of persons from differing schools of thought on the subject of law and speci...
--

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 The majority of offenders cease to commit crime in early adulthood. This phenomenon, known as desistance from crime, is well-docume nted in the criminological literature. Recently, there has been a growing interest in studying the mechanisms and contexts involved in the transitio...
--

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
4, Credits
10 Victims have become increasingly salient in academic,
political and media discourse, reflecting a growing awareness of the need to support, inform and protect people who have suffered harm arising from a criminal offence. In recent years, initiatives
designed to assist victims a...

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
4, Credits
10
This module
asks the question: what is the role of law in the governance of the EU? This involves identifying and analysing the nature of the rule of law, the nature of the EU legal order;
what is governance in general and in the EU. Having briefly reviewed EU legal structures,...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 This module provides an overview of the incarceration of tens of thousands of men, women and children during the first fifty years of Irish independence. Psychiatric hospitals, mother and baby homes, Magdalen homes, reformatory and industrial schools, prisons and Borstal formed a...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 Climate change is one of the greatest challenges of our time. This module critically examines the regulatory responses to climate change across the globe: internationally, at EU level, and nationally. Both mitigation and adaptation responses will be dealt with, as well as exempl...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 This module examines current issues in internet regulation. It considers the legal, regulatory and technical framework within which internet activities take place and examines how particular areas fit within that framework. It will assess the notion of the internet as a borderles...
--

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 4, Credits
10 Litigation is more complex where it has a foreign element:
for example,
where it concerns an international contract or a transnational tort.

The appropriate location for hearing the case may be unclear and highly contested where the parties are based in different countries. B...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 This module provides a detailed introduction to data protection and privacy law, taking an international perspective that focuses on Irish and EU law. The course will consider theoretical approaches to conceptualizing an individual's interest in personal information. It will also...
--

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 Over 89 million people are currently displaced in the world due to conflict, persecution and violations of human rights. Asylum and refugee law considers the particular legal frameworks relating to persons seeking protection from persecution and serious harm outside of their coun...

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
4, Credits
10 Tax, particularly international tax, has generated a high level of public discourse in the past decade.
Witness the US Senate questioning Apple on its corporate structure involving subsidiaries in Ireland (May 2013), the chair of the UK Public Accounts Committee
labelling Google...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 This module explores the ambiguous nature of corporate and white-collar wrongdoing, behaviour which often straddles the boundaries between criminal and non-criminal wrongdoing, and which often combines the respectable person and the criminal in one figure. Key topics for analysis...
--

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 7.5 The objective of this module is to develop students understanding of the legal framework for the financing of civilian aircraft. The module will begin by considering the fundamentals of the law of finance including the law of contract, property, equity and trusts. It will then ...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 This module examines the law and policy of the patent system. Basic principles and current issues of patent law and policy are approached from a European and international perspective, comparisons with other jurisdictions will be drawn where appropriate. The module will intro...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 20 The programme will provide participants with a detailed knowledge of the aims of professional regulation and the functions of a regulator. Participants will explore some of the distinctive ethical problems faced by professionals, and will focus in detail on the fitness to practi...

Search Modules by School

 Summer, Level 4, Credits 30 This module comprises a mix of classes, workshops and exercises conducted in the third trimester. Students are introduced to the practice and skills of commercial arbitration which they then develop in a variety of role-play exercises and problem focused scenarios, many led by ar...
--

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 4, Credits
5 Planning law
has historically
been
controversial,
politicised and
adversarial in Ireland, making
for a fascinating
mix of law,
policy and politics. This module will introduce students to core
features of
planning law,
including:
development;
planning
applications and
decisions; a...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 5 This module comprises a practical, in-depth examination of the foundations of environmental law, with a focus on European and international perspectives. It traces the development of EU and international environmental law to date and analyzes the legal principles applied to envir...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 2.5 This module introduces the legal framework relevant for practitioners in the arts, culture, and heritage sectors. It examines how culture is defined in law; what areas of culture are governed; and how human rights and culture interact with one another. It also examine the fun...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 This module examines the law and practice around data protection governance. It examines the procedural rules and safeguards which are in place to guarantee data protection rights, such as the role of data protection officers, the carrying out of data protection impact assessment...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 5 This module reviews the principal remedies for illegal administrative action: judicial review (and habeas corpus/Article 40.4.2 of the Constitution); actions for damage for unlawful administrative action; the right of recovery of illegally extracted taxes and charges; the crimin...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 5 Judicial review is the individual's remedy for the correction of illegal action by public agencies or officers. Judicial review is also one of the most common legal processes in the superior courts. The remedy by way of judicial review is available only where the administrative a...
--

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 4, Credits
5 Together with Advanced Company Law I,
this module
focuses on the law of
companies in Irish law and in addition covers
the required
syllabus for the
professional bodies in the subject
Company Law.

The syllabus of topics which may be explored in this module
includes:
Corporate...

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
4, Credits
5 Together with Advanced
Company Law
1, this module
focuses on the law of companies in Irish law and in addition covers
the required
syllabus for the
professional bodies in the subject
Company Law.

The syllabus of
topics which may be explored in this module includes
- Character...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 4, Credits
5 This module is designed to examine the scope and legal framework of the law regarding Trusts. The module aims to enable the student to develop the requisite knowledge and understanding of the main
concepts, principles and rules of modern trust law. The module will develop and ass...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 5 This module is designed to examine the scope and legal framework of the law regarding the doctrines and remedies of Equity. The module aims to enable the student to develop the requisite knowledge and understanding of the main concepts, principles and rules of modern equity. The ...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 4, Credits
5 This is the second of two modules examining the rules that regulate the admission of evidence in a court of law.
This course builds on the Advanced
Evidence 1 module and focuses on advanced topics within the Law of Evidence.
The module begins with a detailed consideration of the ...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 5 The law of evidence concerns the admission of proof in courts of law. This course examines the rules that govern this process. It also analyses the philosophical and practical considerations that underpin the rules on admissibility of evidence. The structure of the trial process ...
 Spring, Level 4, Credits 5 This module will consider leasehold tenure and the commerical applications of the law of real property including covenants, mortgages, business tenancies and residential tenancies....

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
4, Credits
5 This module will introduce
students to fundamental concepts in Irish property law. It will cover:

- (a) The legal nature of property and property rights
- (b) The role and influence of the law of equity
- (c) The theory of estates
- (d) Freehold
estates
- (e) Adverse possession

...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 5 This module builds on earlier learning to examine in more detail the catalogue of criminal offences and the general defences which may apply in respect of those offences. It covers the substantive crimes of homicide, sexual offences, offences against the person, offences against ...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 5 This module begins by introducing the student to the general principles of criminal liability. It examines the nature of criminal (as distinct from civil) liability and considers the elements of crime including in particular the concepts of actus reus, mens rea and issues in caus...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 5 This module explores the key European Union legal policies intended to secure the operation of the Internal Market. The legal policies examined in this module include: - free movement of goods - free movement of services - free movement of workers and families - competition ...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 5 The aim of this module is to give students a grounding in the institutional and constitutional framework of the European Union. European Union law is first put in its historical framework by considering the constitutional evolution of the European Union, including an analysis of ...  Spring, Level 4, Credits 5 The purpose of this module is to look at the various vitiating factors that might apply to a contract. It then goes on to consider the various remedies available where there has been a breach of contract....

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 5 The purpose of this module is to look at the various vitiating factors that might apply to a contract. It then goes on to consider the various remedies available where there has been a breach of contract....
--

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 5 This module will examine in detail various stand alone torts. The topics will relate to land based torts including Public and Private Nuisance, Rylands v. Fletcher and Trespass to land. Strict liability will be investigated including Liability for Animals and Products Liabilit...
--

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
4, Credits
5
The module
involves a detailed examination of the law of negligence. It will trace the historical evolution of negligence to its current format
examining the forms of liability that arise in negligence from misstatements to pure economic loss to nervous shock and omissions.
The...

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 4, Credits
5
This module
examines fundamental rights under the Constitution of Ireland and related rights under the European Convention on Human Rights.
It is intended to provide students with the knowledge
and understanding that is required of those who seek to enter
professional training co...

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
4, Credits
5
This module
examinations
the institutional aspects of Irish constitutional
law,
concentrating on the concept
of the separation of powers. It is intended to provide students will the knowledge and understanding of this subject required of those who seek to embark of professional t...

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 This module examines the law and policy of the copyright system in an international context. Copyright harmonization at EU level will form the basis for comparative analysis of different areas of copyright law, including subject matter, exclusive rights, exceptions and limitation...
--

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 Comparative regulation explores the public and private character of regulatory governance, exploring how regulatory instruments and functions differ across distinct jurisdictions, exploring in particular, divergences and convergences across Ireland, Europe and America. Co-located...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 It is an unfortunate fact of our contemporary reality that armed conflicts continue in many countries around the world, claiming a considerable number of direct and indirect victims. This module examines the branch of public international law that aims to protect those victims wh...

Search Modules by School

 2 Trimester duration (Aut-Spr), Level 4, Credits 10 The Vis Arbitration Moot module an intensive clinical legal education module where students knowledge and skills in international arbitration advocacy are developed. The module focuses on preparation for and participation in the elite Wilhelm C. Vis International Arbitration Moot...
--

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

Spring, Level 4, Credits
10 Cultural heritage is increasingly viewed as a
human rights
issue, yet the substance of the relationship between cultural heritage and
human rights remains clouded in uncertainty.
This module
sheds light on the nature,
scope and limits
of human rights
vis-à-vis cultural heritage ...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

Spring, Level 4, Credits
5 Cultural
heritage is increasingly viewed as a
human rights
issue, yet the substance of the relationship between cultural heritage and
human rights remains
clouded in uncertainty.
This module
sheds light on the nature,
scope and limits
of human rights
vis-à-vis cultural heritage ...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 Purpose & ContentThe module is designed to provide students with the extensive knowledge of the regulation of Financial Technology (FinTech), Technology for Finance (TechFin), Regulatory Technology (RegTech), Supervisory Technology (SupTech) and Legal Technology (LegalTech). We...
--

Search Modules by School

Year-long (12 months), Level
4, Credits
10
This module
introduces students to the practical skills and techniques of mediation
with input from experts in the field. Students will acquire and practice the skills in a role play environment,
and may complete an assessment for external accreditation purposes....

Search Modules by School

Year-long (12 months), Level
4, Credits
10
This Module
builds upon the knowledge and skills acquired in Modules 42100 (Mediation Process and Skills) and Law 42100 (Dispute
Resolution Skills), focusing on

- The Law and Practice of Commercial
Mediation;
- The Law and Regulation of Mediation:
- Technology
and Mediat...

Search Modules by School

Year-long (12 months), Level 4, Credits 10 This module focuses on:

- The Fundamentals of Negotiation;
- Mediation Practice and Skills;
- Dispute Resolution Lawyering; and

Students will learn and practice the knowledge and skills involved in managing a mediation as a party or party representative, and will gain i...

Search Modules by School

Year-long (12
months), Level
4, Credits
10
This module
focuses on disputes and ways to manage and resolve them. The module looks at:

- Conflict and Dispute
Resolution;
- Alternative Dispute
Resolution;
- Communication Skills; and
- Mediation
Theory.

Learning Outcomes:
On successful completion of this Module, ...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 This module aims to train students to engage in a practical way with the procedures of United Nations human rights bodies frequently used by lawyers, civil society actors and national human rights institutions as advocacy tools. The module will consist of of a critical explorat...
--

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 The theme of this module is the set of statutory and common law rules constraining the employer's prerogative in the employment relationship. The module focusses on the extent to which the legislature, often in the context of Ireland's EU obligations, has prescribed a floor of em...
--

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 The theme of this module is the set of statutory and common law rules constraining the employer's prerogative in the employment relationship. The module focusses on the extent to which the legislature, often in the context of Ireland's EU obligations, has prescribed a floor of em...
--

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 This module examines the legal and regulatory context of cybersecurity, considering both Irish law and the wider international framework. It looks at the development of criminal offences in relation to cybercrime and the way in which international cooperation in this area has d...
--

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 This course will cover the basic concepts in the field of Behavioral Law and Economics. It will trace the history of the field, starting from its beginnings, as a criticism of the then-accepted Law and Economics paradigm, to its present importance in analyses of law. Law and Ec...
--

Search Modules by School

Spring, Level 4, Credits
10
The objective of this module is to help learners develop a greater understanding of the objectives, contexts and challenges of regulatory investigations, and to develop skills to make them better equipped to approach them.

In particular, it aims to help learners distinguish ...

Search Modules by School

 Spring, Level 4, Credits 10 In this module, students are given the opportunity to develop their legal research, writing and advocacy skills. Students are given a case study comprising a hypothetical factual scenario that raises issues of environmental law. Students are asked to identify the relevant legal i...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 The module explores commercial relations in their practical and theoretical dimension. The first part of the module introduces students to the function of the contracts as tools for structuring legal relations. Students will examine the processes of contract drafting in relation ...

Search Modules by School

Printed on 3 December 2022
by

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 Recent years have seen rising concerns over the human impact on the marine environment, marine ecosystems and biodiversity. Overexploitation of marine living resources, ocean warming and acidification as well as harmful pollution, especially from micro plastics, together suggest ...
--

Search Modules by School

 Autumn, Level 4, Credits 10 This module on Natural Resources Law, which is taught fully online via weekly live classes and other online resources, covers a range of environmental sectors including for example Nature Conservation and Biodiversity Law, Air Law, Water Law, Industrial Licensing Law, Waste Law, ...
--

Search Modules by School

Autumn, Level
5, Credits

This module
provides an introduction to advanced methods and approaches in legal research
for students starting their research degree in law. It takes
the epistemological question: how do you know what you know?
as its starting point to investigate different
research methodologi...