

Title:	AIB Best in Class Award: Food and Agribusiness Management
Award Type:	Award
Programme Description:	Agricultural Science
Long Description:	UCD's campus banking partner, AIB, are seeking to re-establish a strong working relationship with UCD's School of Agriculture and Food Science. They wish to make available two best in class awards for graduating final year (stage 4) students in the two BAgrSc programmes (1) Food and Agribusiness Management; and (2) Dairy Business. AIB are kindly providing two monetary awards, each of EUR1,000, to recognise student excellence on these two undergraduate programmes. They wish to make the initial award to students graduating in 2017, and have committed (in writing) to a further three years in the first instance (i.e. a total of four years financial commitment in the first instance).
