

Title:	Agricultural Economics Society of Ireland Award
Award Type:	Medal and Prize
Programme Description:
Long Description:	The Agricultural Economics Society of Ireland has kindly agreed to continue funding an annual award to recognise the longstanding relationship between the Society and the graduates of Agricultural Economics and Food and Agribusiness Management in University College Dublin. The award will consist of a medal and a small monetary amount (approximately EUR127). It will be presented annually to the Food and Agribusiness Management student who, having passed the BAgSc Degree Examination in toto at the first attempt, obtains the highest aggregate grades in the Stage Four modules AERD 30190 Farm Business Management and AERD 30210 Ag Policy. A student receiving this prize will not be eligible to receive the Hussey Prize in Agribusiness
Value:	127