

Title:	Professor James C. Brady Memorial Prize
Award Type:	Medal and Prize
Programme Description:
Long Description:	This annual prize commemorates James C. Brady (1940-1998), Professor of the Law of Property and Equity in University College Dublin. It was established in 2001 by the James C. Brady Memorial Trust as a tribute to Professor Brady and his skills in teaching and research in the field of equity and trusts. The prize (currently a gold medal, a copy of the Liber Memorialis in honour of Professor Brady and a cheque for EUR350) is awarded to the student who achieves the best combined result from both LAW30060 Equity: History, Doctrines, Remedies and LAW30230 Overview of law relating to creation and administration of trusts examination. The prize is open to students from all UG law degree programmes. The prizewinner will be awarded the gold medal at the UCD University Awards Day ceremony (in addition to a School of Law award ceremony for the remainder of the prize).
