

Title:	Oxford University Press Law Prize
Award Type:	Prize
Programme Description:
Long Description:	The prize is awarded to the student receiving the highest overall grade in the Research module. If there is a tie in the overall grade the prize goes to the student who received the higher grade in the major research project which is by far the most important component of the course. If there is a tie here the result in the minor research project will prove decisive. A further tie will be decided by the grade received for the presentation.
