

Title:	Eileen Reilly Memorial Prize
Award Type:	Prize
Programme Description:
Long Description:	This prize will commemorate the achievements of Eileen Reilly who passed away in 2018. Dr Reilly was a former undergraduate student, Postdoctoral Researcher and Adjunct Research Fellow in the School of Archaeology and a close friend to many of us. Eileen was a leading researcher in the field of Environmental Archaeology and we propose to commemorate her through a Prize awarded for substantial undergraduate achievement in the field of environmental archaeology. The Prize celebrates the achievements of a young female academic and therefore provides a role model for our students and contributes to broader promotion of EDI.
