

| Title:                 | BSc (Neuroscience) Stage 3 Scholarship   |
|------------------------|--|
| Award Type:            | Scholarship  |
| Programme Description: | Science  |
| Long Description:      | The scholarship for Neuroscience is awarded in Stage 3 to the student of that subject with the best          |
|                        | performance in the subject area in Stage 2 provided the student obtains a GPA of 3.68 or higher in that      |
|                        | subject area and is progressing into that subject area in Stage 3. A subject area is defined by modules that |
|                        | a student must take in Stage 2 to proceed within that subject to degree level.                               |
| Value:                 | 1,000  |