designed to assist research students and supervisors in completing a successful doctorate in a timely manner. Tips on how to take control&nbsp;as a research student and drive a fruitful relationship with your research supervisor, exploring the dynamics of this key relationship are also covered. The latter part of the workshop helps students to get to grips with their RPD or Research and professional development Plan, with a view to engaging with career and project planning at the earliest stage possible in the doctoral programme.
